

Tazria Crossword Puzzle

Across

1 By distancing the community away from a person through gossip, the gossip is punished by being ___ from the community for one week.

3 When G-d is hidden from us.

7 Parents should work to develop good ___ traits in their children.

12 When priest is suspicious of a person's white skin discolorations, he may declare the person impure or place the person in this state for up to two weeks.

15 Giving should be based on ability, not ___.

16 Parents should take care that their children understand that ___ stems from their parents' love for them.

17 We each have a mission where we use our ___ talents to bring something unique to the world.

Down

2 When continually giving someone another chance becomes ___ to us, them or others, the ethical thing to do is to stop giving another chance.

4 Even though her intentions were good, Moses' sister was punished for lashon hara.

5 Gossip not only hurts the person being gossiped about; it also ___ the souls of those who speak and hear it.

6 The open presence of G-d.

8 Parents have an obligation to ___ their male child on the eighth day of his life.

9 We all have a mission in which, unified as a nation, we are ___.

10 G-d judges us by the way we judge ___.

11 An important aspect of parenting. Uniform, steadfast adherence to principles.

13 Tazria discusses skin maladies brought about by engaging in this action.

14 While in isolation, a person is unable to ___ one's purpose on any level.