

The Three Weeks

The Three Weeks

Across

3 These foods are allowed on Shabbat and other seudat mitzvah.

6 These clothes may be worn on Shabbat.

10 During the “Nine Days” we reduce our ____ even more.

11 The “Three Weeks” are known as the period within the _____. (Lamentations 1:3)

13 The “Three Weeks” begin at the 17th of _____.

15 During the “Three Weeks” the First and Second ____ were destroyed.

17 During the “Nine Days” we do not engage in ____ with non-Jews since this is an inauspicious time.

18 During the “Three Weeks” we minimize joy and _____.

Down

1 We do not cut this during the “Three Weeks.”

2 This part of Shabbat services during the “Three Weeks” are taken from chapters that deal with destruction of the Temple and exile of the Jewish people.

3 We do not listen to this during the “Three Weeks.”

4 The “Three Weeks” end at the Tisha B’_____.

5 This type of ceremony is not held during the “Three Weeks.”

7 The “Three Weeks” have historically been days of _____ for the Jewish people.

8 During the “Nine Days” we do not _____ items that bring great joy.

9 Bathing in warm water is allowed on this day during the “Nine Days.”

11 We do not say the blessing SheHechianu on new food or clothes, except on this day.

12 Divine _____ is felt during the “Three Weeks” so we avoid dangerous behavior.

14 During the “Nine Days” we do not _____ trees or flowers.

16 The “_____ Days” begins with Rosh Chodesh Av.