

Vaet Chanan

Vaet Chanan

Across

1 This person believes he deserves anything he wants without any appreciation of it or those who provided it.

3 The Seal of G-d.

5 This contains a commandment to “love G-d with all your heart, with all your life, and with all your possessions.” We should not be distracted by continuously chasing money, etc.; we need to make time to savor each moment in life.

10 We show respect to the elderly, teachers, and others who have this.

12 Life’s challenges build this.

13 This brings us closer to G-d.

14 Worship of an inanimate object.

15 Slaughter, destruction of life or shedding of blood by injury, wound.

Down

1 You shall work this many days per week.

2 When things seem hopeless, we must remain hopeful. Losing hope ___ our trust in G-d.

3 This provides instructions on how to behave in the most ethical manner. Studying this brings us closer to G-d.

4 Finding a harmonious balance between our bodies and our souls.

6 By living the kind of life G-d asks of us, we are ___ the gifts He provides.

7 We should be grateful to our parents for the gift of life. We honor our parents in order to learn how to show this to them and the Parent of us all, G-d.

8 Wickedness, sexual misconduct.

9 He refused to play in the World Series on Yom Kippur.

11 This type of gift is known as “bread of shame” because it makes us dependent upon the giver.

13 Teaching proper values is the most important job for this group.